MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Secretary
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Routing Slips

As we move forward with the new DCI organization, I think it's quite important that we keep the distinction clear between what I am doing as head of the CIA and what I am doing as DCI. We have a basic pink routing slip for all correspondence (except Top Secret?). I wonder if we should have a blue routing slip for community correspondence and continue with our using the pink routing slips for CIA correspondence?
